Cookie Policy

Last update: 06/07/2020 Version: 2.0

Cookies are used on our website https://wannachat.org/ (the "Website"). In this cookie policy, we describe in full what cookies we use, why we use them, and how you can opt out of our cookie use. If you do not agree with how we use cookies, please disable them as indicated in the section "How to disable cookies?" Please be aware that without cookies, the website may not function properly.

1. Entity in charge (data controller)

2. The data controller in charge of processing your personal data via the Website is Algo Media LTD, with an address at Hasaham 30, Petah tiqwa, 49517 Israel ("we," "us," and "our").

3. What is a cookie?

When you visit certain websites, a cookie is a small bit of data or a text file that is downloaded to your computer or mobile device. Cookies may contain text that the web server that supplied the cookie to you can view. The cookie text normally consists of a series of characters and numbers that uniquely identify your computer or mobile device; it may also contain other information.

4. What types of cookies are there?

• Strictly essential cookies are the most common sort of cookie. These cookies are required for the website to work properly, such as displaying content, logging in, authenticating your session, replying to your request for services, and performing other duties. Cookies can be disabled in the majority of web browsers. If you disable certain cookies, you may be unable to access certain features on our website correctly or at all.

• Cookies for performance. These cookies collect information on how visitors interact with the website, such as pages visited, traffic sources, users' interests, content management, and other website metrics.

• Cookies that serve a purpose. These cookies allow the website to remember a user's decisions when using the website, such as their language, user name, and other personal preferences. They can also be used to provide services, such as allowing users to create blog posts, listen to audio, or watch videos on the website.

• Cookie promotion. These cookies enable website operators to plan, execute, and evaluate digital marketing initiatives. These cookies enable them to reach the correct customers, analyze the effectiveness of their marketing activities, and provide you with personalized advertisements.

• Cookies for advertising or targeting. These cookies are typically installed and utilized by advertising businesses to create a profile of your surfing preferences and show advertisements to you.

Advertisements on other websites that are relevant to your interests. If you disable these cookies, you will see less advertising.

- Session Cookies. These cookies enable websites to link a user's actions during a browser session. They can be used for a variety of functions, including remembering what a user has placed in their shopping basket while browsing a website. Session cookies also allow users to be recognized as they explore a website, so that any modifications they make to items or pages are remembered from page to page. Session cookies expire at the end of a browser session, so they are not saved indefinitely..

- Persistent cookies. These cookies are retained on a user's device during browser sessions, allowing the user's preferences or actions to be remembered across a site (or, in some situations, across multiple sites). Persistent cookies can be used for a variety of purposes, such as remembering a user's selections and preferences when they visit a website or targeting advertisements to them.

5. Cookie consent

When you first visit the website, we may ask you to grant your approval to our usage of cookies via a cookie consent banner. If you do not agree to our usage of all cookies, we may only send you technical cookies those are strictly necessary to ensure the Website's effective operation. Such cookies do not require your permission to be used. Please keep in mind that if not all cookies are enabled, we may be unable to offer you with the best possible user experience. Accepting all cookies grants us and our third-party partners permission to place, store, and access some or all of the cookies specified below on your computer.

6. What cookies do we use and for what purposes?

9. Web Beacons

Web beacons may also be used to collect general information about your use of our Website and participation in special contests or mailings. The information obtained by web beacons allows us to statistically track the number of people who open our emails. Web beacons also help us understand the behavior of our customers, members, and visitors.

10. Google Ad and Content Network Privacy Notice

Third-party suppliers, such as Google, use cookies to deliver advertisements based on your previous visits to our Website. Google and its partners use the DoubleClick cookie to serve advertising to you based on your visits to our Website and/or other websites on the Internet.

You can opt out of the use of the DoubleClick cookie for interest-based advertising by visiting http://www.aboutads.info/choices. Please visit http://www.youronlinechoices.eu if you live in Europe.

11. Google Analytics Privacy Notice

Our Website uses Google Analytics to collect information about the use of our Website. Google Analytics collects information from users such as age, gender, interests, demographics, how often they visit our Website, what pages they visit, and what other websites they have used before coming to our Website. We use the information we get from Google Analytics to analyse traffic, re-market our products and services to users, improve our marketing, advertising, and to improve our Website. We have enabled Google Analytics advertising services such as Google Analytics remarketing, Google Display Network Impression Reporting, and Google Analytics Demographics and Interest Reporting. Google Analytics simply gathers your IP address on the date you visit our Website, not your name or any other identifying information. We do not combine the information gathered by Google Analytics with your personal information..

Although Google Analytics places a persistent cookie on your web browser in order to identify you as a unique user the next time you visit our Website, the cookie is only accessible to Google. Google also employs unique identifiers to assist in the collection of information about our Website's usage. Visit https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners for additional information on how Google collects and manages your data.

You can prevent Google Analytics from utilizing your information by clicking here: https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout.

12. Flash Cookies Adobe Flash Player

Adobe Flash Player is a computer software that allows for the quick development of dynamic content using the Flash programming language. To remember the settings, preferences, and consumption of this content, Flash (and comparable apps) employs cookie-like technology. Adobe Flash Player, on the other hand, controls this information and your choices through a separate interface than your browser.

Because your device may be capable of viewing Flash-based content, we invite you to use the Flash cookie management tools available at http://www.adobe.com/en.
